COMMERCIAL

An Introduction to Barwells Commercial Department

Barwells has a friendly and motivated team dealing with commercial matters. We are committed to providing high quality commercial legal services to all of our business clients, however large or small. Our department deals with both commercial property matters and corporate matters.

Commercial Property

We have a wealth of experience in commercial property matters and offer a comprehensive legal service to business and high net worth private clients. Our local knowledge and contacts often give our clients a real advantage.

We act for a wide range of property investors seeking to build or disposing of their property portfolio, landlords buying for development or rental, and businesses of all sizes buying and selling premises as their needs change.

Whilst acting pro-actively to protect your interests, our aim is to provide practical, personal and realistic solutions to meet your financial objectives based on our legal expertise, commercial acumen and a clear understanding of your individual situation.

We are able to work to tight deadlines, expect to take the initiative and always aim to complete the deal on the best terms with your interests at the heart of the deal.

Examples of recent work carried out by Barwells are listed below: -

- Acquisitions and disposals – freehold or leasehold land and industrial, retail or office premises
- Commercial lettings and leases
- Portfolio acquisition or break-up
- Sale and purchase of a business
- Landlord and tenant matters – lease drafting, renewals, break clauses, dilapidations, rent recovery and service charge
- Tenancy agreements, renewals, rent reviews and terminations
- Employment Law

Corporate

We help to formulate strategies for the formation of new businesses or restructuring, acquisitions, disposals and mergers of existing ones. We can assist and take an active involvement in the negotiations and prepare clear documents to effect the deal in hand.

We work hard to understand your business and current legal position and with this information at hand aim to put you in a strong position.

We provide a practical legal framework that ensures your plans are not obstructed by unnecessary legal technicalities or delays. We hope that with our business acumen, effective negotiation and drafting your business will grow from strength to strength.

Examples of the work carried out by Barwells are listed below: -

- Partnership and joint venture agreements
- Directors contracts and confidentiality agreements
- Company formations and trusts
- Shareholder agreements
- Executive or directors' service agreements
- Acquiring or disposing of a business
- Resolving disputes
- Share sale agreements

In addition we can assist our commercial clients with specific commercial financial advice.

Financial Advisers for Businesses

Barwells is one of a few legal practices with an in-house Independent Financial Advice Department. Working closely with our Commercial Department to structure your financial objectives, we are able to offer you a complete package to meet both your business and personal needs.
